

A LEADER FOR ALL

Julie Todaro for ALA President 2016 - 2017

What qualifies Julie to be a leader for all?

- A library manager for 30 years with experience in all types of libraries.
- Dean of library services at the nation's sixth largest community college system.
- A children's librarian for seven years and K-12 certified school librarian.
- Educator, consultant, and trainer in leadership and management, organizational design and effectiveness, human resources and 21st century staffing, facilities, customer service, marketing and advocacy, and continuous learning.
- Presenter for a 12-part webinar series for support staff in 2015.
- Skilled legislative advocate and media relations expert.

How has Julie led associations to advance the profession?

- Association of College and University Libraries President in 2007-2008 and Texas Library Association President in 2000-2001.
- Leader, co-leader and member for ALA presidential initiatives for Barbara Stripling (future of libraries), Camila Alire (frontline advocacy), Nancy Kranich (information literacy) and Mary Somerville (Kids Can't Wait).
- Created toolkits: The Power of Persuasion and Frontline Advocacy.
- Regular columnist for LLAMA and for the Community and Junior College Libraries.
- Chair of a state agency's initiatives to develop standards for school libraries in 2002-2003 and to assess public library development in 2003-2005.
- Frequent conference and workshop presenter.

What is Julie's vision for the ALA Presidency?

"We must proactively communicate what libraries are, what they do, and the value they bring by articulating their vision, mission, goals, outcomes and values."

"What makes libraries truly unique is the expertise within the library."

Libraries Lead.

Library Workers Lead.

Library Supporters Lead.

Julie is a passionate advocate for libraries of all types. Most importantly, she cares about the people who work in libraries and is deeply committed to shaping new leaders and library professionals ... She is a high-energy, highly engaged leader who will work tirelessly for ALA on behalf of the people served by our libraries.
